

Lesson 2-What to do today

IMPORTANT! Parent or Carer – Read this page with your child and check that you are happy with what they have to do and with any weblinks or use of the Internet required.

1. It's reading time!

Re-listen to The Paper Bag Princess at

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=hIPrb-sA6Uo&t=168s> or watch again

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=P0INFZtpq7A> ○ What different settings are there in the story?

- How would you describe the land through which the Princess travels?
How would you describe the Dragon's cave?

2. Adverbs for description

Adverbs

Adverbs add to adjectives – they tell us more about the description.

The silly dragon...

The smart princess ...

How silly is the dragon?

How smart is the princess?

Now try it yourself!

We can choose an adverb.

extremely

very unusually really exceptionally quite

Now we can finish the sentence.

The extremely silly dragon tired himself out.

The really smart princess outwitted the dragon.

Using adverbs

Add an adverb to tell us more about each description.

extremely really quite very unusually exceptionally

A _____ stupid prince

A/an _____ horrid thing to say

The _____ relieved princess

A/an _____ unusual story

Paper Bag Word Banks

- Moving from left to right, pick one word from each column to make a description, e.g. A lot of really handsome dragons...
- Write your description on a piece of paper.
- Add some more information to make a sentence. E.g. A lot of really handsome dragons from all over the mountains flew past us.
- Repeat this to generate a new description and a new sentence.

Determiners	Adverbs	Adjectives	Nouns
A An The Those My	very absolutely extremely	scary pretty	dragon prince awfully really dreadfully	brave dangerous	princess castle Her His This That	especially hugely quite	small handsome	forest sword rock	unusually frequently	sharp smoky sad	flame crown paper bag Some A lot of	usually green happy tall	prison		