Have a look at some below. Design your own with the materials you have at home. Can you model them on the ones worn by Captain Tom? <hr/> How many of the things around you do you know the French word for? Make a list of 20 things you can find in your home and use the online dictionary to discover their French names! www.collinsdictionary.com/dictionary/english-french <hr/> Look at some of the photographs of VE Day in 1945: https://www.iwm.org.uk/history/10-photos-of-ve-day-celebrations Draw a poster based on one of the photos to celebrate the 75th anniversary of that historic day. <hr/> Even after the Second World War ended, people still had to manage with very little food. This was called rationing. Look at the list of food a family was allowed here: http://www.primaryhomeworkhelp.co.uk/war/rationing2.html With an adult, design a recipe you could make with these ingredients. Remember, fruit & veg was not rationed, so you can use plenty of those!	Choose a Maths or English game from ictgames.com This week, I recommend Division Tables: https://uk.ixl.com/math/year-4/complete-the-division-table Choose a level and activity to challenge you appropriately. <hr/> Visit BBC Newsround to discover what the team can tell you about VE Day. <hr/> Can you draw your own racing car?
